

Washington, D.C. - On Sunday, Rep. Price joined WRAL-FM's News and Views with Chris Fitzsimon to discuss President Obama's State of the Union address. The two also discussed Rep. Price's opposition to Republican legislation abolishing the public financing system for presidential campaigns. Rep. Price has introduced legislation to mend the financing system by empowering small donors and curbing the influence of special interest money in politics.

Listen to Rep. Price's interview on WRAL-FM:

More information on Rep. Price's Presidential Public Financing Act is available here .

#