

Washington, D.C. - The State Employees Association of North Carolina (SEANC) has invited Congressman David Price to participate in a town hall meeting on health insurance reform in Durham tonight. The event will provide an opportunity for Rep. Price to discuss the details of the reform proposal before the House of Representatives with Triangle residents.

The meeting begins at 6:45 p.m. at NCCU's Miller Morgan Building, 528 Nelson St. in Durham. For more information, view the SEANC press release .

#