

Washington, D.C. - Congressman Price has called for an end to the recent surge in violence in the Middle East, and has worked to promote greater U.S. leadership in retuning the Israelis and Palestinians to a path toward negotiation and long-term peace.

Please see his latest efforts below.

An op-ed in the Charlotte Observer and Miami Herald highlighting the need for urgent diplomatic action to salvage any hopes of a negotiated settlement in the region.

A letter to President Bush signed by 24 House members expressing their deep concern for the humanitarian crisis in the Gaza Strip and demanding several immediate steps to ease the humanitarian situation in Gaza.

Remarks by Congressman Price during debate of House Resolution 34 expressing that while he agrees with certain elements of the resolution, he was disappointed that the resolution failed to reflect the humanitarian disaster in Gaza or to emphasize the steps required to achieve a long-term solution for the Israeli and Palestinian people.

# #