

Washington, D.C. - Congressman David Price (D-NC) was recently interviewed by State Government Radio's Don Curtis on a host of issues including the assassination of former Pakistani Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto, the war in Iraq, the future of the economy and the subprime mortgage crisis, energy reform, the drought, and other topics.

The hour-long interview for "Carolina Newsmakers" first aired on January 1, 2008, and it can be accessed here .

#