

Congressman Price delivers a speech to the House of Representatives in support of a bill to implement the remaining recommendations of the 9/11 Commission (H.R. 1). As chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee that determines the budget for the Department of Homeland Security, Price stresses the importance of making the right fiscal choices to ensure that our homeland security needs are provided for.