

Washington, D.C. – Representative David Price (NC-04) placed 8th out of 223 competitors in the Twitter portion of House Democrats' Member Online All-Star Competition as his feed @RepDavidEPrice added 772 new followers over the three week contest aimed at reaching out to constituents on social media. The Democratic House members, and Democratic social media feeds administered by House standing committees and caucuses, gained over 139,000 new social media followers during the contest.

Rep. Price's most popular tweet, "Quick show of hands—retweet if you agree Americans have a right to know who is trying to influence their vote. #DISCLOSEAct" has been retweeted over 260 times since it was posted in July as the Senate considered the DISCLOSE Act. Rep. Price also placed second in the YouTube competition aimed at adding new channel subscribers. Rep. Price's YouTube channel is online here .
