

North Carolina Congressman David Price says the U.S. cannot afford to back away from helping Libya build a democratic government after an attack on the U.S. embassy there killed the ambassador and three others.